1 Plaintiffs Russell Stanley, John R. Shannon III, Richard Jones, Gregory Painter, Ann
2 Marie Putzier and Alex Nicholson (“Plaintiffs”), individually and on behalf of a Class of all
3 those similarly situated in the United States, bring this action for damages and equitable relief
4 under state and federal antitrust, unfair competition, consumer protection, and unjust enrichment
5 laws, against the Defendants named herein, demanding trial by jury, and complaining and 6 alleging as follows:

7 I. INTRODUCTION

8 1. Plaintiffs bring this antitrust class action on behalf of individuals and entities that 9 indirectly purchased hard disk drive (“HDD”) suspension assemblies (referred to hereinafter as 10 “HDD Suspension Assemblies”) in the United States from Defendants, their predecessors, any 11 subsidiaries or affiliates thereof, or any of their named and unnamed co-conspirators, during the 12 period beginning at least as early as May 2008 until such time as the anticompetitive effects of 13 the Defendants’ conduct on United States consumers of such products has ceased (the “Class 14 Period”). Plaintiffs allege that during the Class Period, the Defendants conspired to fix, raise, 15 maintain and/or stabilize prices of HDD Suspension Assemblies sold in the United States.
16 Because of Defendant’s unlawful conduct, Plaintiffs and other Class Members paid artificially
17 inflated prices for HDD Suspension Assemblies (as defined below) and have suffered antitrust 18 injury to their business or property.

19 2. As further detailed below, from at least May 2008 through at least April 2016, 20 Defendants entered into agreements with each other to refrain from price competition and 21 allocate their respective market shares for suspension assemblies used in HDDs. Pursuant to 22 their agreements not to compete, Defendants exchanged pricing information including 23 anticipated pricing quotes, which they used to inform their negotiations with U.S. and foreign 24 customers that purchased suspension assemblies and produced HDDs for sale in, or delivery to,
25 the U.S. and elsewhere. As a direct and proximate result of these agreements, Defendants
26 charged artificially high prices for HDD Suspension Assemblies, and purchasers of products
27 containing HDD Suspension Assemblies paid more for those products than they would have 28 paid in a competitive market.

3. HDD Suspension Assemblies are a crucial component of HDDs. In announcing Defendant NHK Spring Co., Ltd.’s guilty plea to fixing prices of HDD Suspension Assemblies in violations of Section 1 of the Sherman Act, Assistant Attorney General Makan Delrahim of the Antitrust Division of the United States Department of Justice (“DOJ”) said: “While these parts are physically small, they are critical to the operation and performance of electronic devices, and their impact on American consumers and businesses is direct and substantial.”

4. Defendants’ collusive conduct is being investigated by the Antitrust Division of the DOJ, and by several other international competition authorities. On July 29, 2019, the DOJ filed a one-count charge against NHK Spring Co., Ltd. for alleged violations of Section 1 of the Sherman Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1. NHK pleaded guilty and agreed to pay $28.5 million in criminal fines and to cooperate in the ongoing investigation.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

5. This action is instituted under Section 16 of the Clayton Act, 15 U.S.C. § 26, to obtain injunctive relief for violations of Section 1 of the Sherman Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1, to recover damages under state antitrust, unfair competition, and consumer protection laws, and to recover costs of suit, including reasonable attorneys’ fees, for the injuries that Plaintiffs and all others similarly situated sustained as a result of the Defendants’ violations of those laws.

6. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over the federal claim under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1337. The Court has subject matter jurisdiction over the state law claims under 28 U.S.C. § 1367 because those claims are so related to the federal claim that they form part of the same case or controversy.

7. This Court also subject matter jurisdiction over the state law claims pursuant to the Class Action Fairness Act of 2005, which amended 28 U.S.C. § 1332 to add a new subsection (d) conferring federal jurisdiction over class actions where, as here, any member of a class of Plaintiffs is a citizen of a State and any defendant is a citizen or subject of a foreign state and the aggregated amount in controversy exceeds $5,000,000, exclusive of interest and costs.

1           8.       Venue is proper in this Judicial District pursuant to Section 12 of the Clayton
2 Act, 15 U.S.C. § 22, and 28 U.S.C. § 1391 (b), (c) and (d), because during the Class Period, one
3 or more of the Defendants resided, transacted business, was found, or had agents in this district,
4 and because a substantial part of the events giving rise to Plaintiffs' claims occurred in this
5 district, and a substantial portion of the affected interstate trade and commerce described below
6 has been carried out in this district.

7           9.       This Court has personal jurisdiction over each of the Defendants because each
8 Defendant, either directly or through ownership or control of its United States subsidiaries,
9 conduct business throughout the United States, including this jurisdiction, and have purposefully
10 availed themselves of the laws of the United States, including specifically the laws of the state
11 of California and the individual states listed herein. Defendants' products are and were sold in 12 the flow of interstate commerce, and Defendants' activities had a direct, substantial and 13 reasonably foreseeable effect on such commerce.

14          10.      Defendants' conspiracy to fix the prices of HDD Suspension Assemblies
15 substantially affected commerce throughout the United States and in each of the states identified
16 herein, because Defendants directly or through their agents, engaged in activities affecting each
17 such state. Defendants have purposefully availed themselves of the laws of each of the states
18 identified herein in connection with their activities relating to the production, marketing, and 19 sale and/or distribution of HDD Suspension Assemblies. Defendants produced, promoted, sold, 20 marketed, and/or distributed HDD Suspension Assemblies, thereby purposefully profiting from 21 access to indirect purchaser consumers in each such state. As a result of the activities described 22 herein, Defendants:

- 23           a.       Caused damage to the residents of the United States, including residents 24                   of the states identified herein;
- 25           b.       Caused damage in the United States and each of the states identified
26                   herein by acts or omissions committed outside the United States and each 27                   such state and by regularly doing or soliciting business in the United 28                   States and each such state;

c. Engaged in a persistent course of conduct within the United States and each state and/or derived substantial revenue from the marketing and sale of HDD Suspension Assemblies in the United States and each such state; and

d. Committed acts or omissions that it knew or should have known would cause damage (and, in fact, did cause damage) in the United States and each such state while regularly doing or soliciting business in the United States and each such state, engaging in other persistent courses of conduct in the United States and each such state, and/or deriving substantial revenue from the marketing and sale of HDD Suspension Assemblies in the United States and each such state.

11. The conspiracy described herein adversely affected every person nationwide, and more particularly, consumers in each of the states identified in this Complaint, who indirectly purchased Defendants' HDD Suspension Assemblies. Defendants' conspiracy has resulted in an adverse monetary effect on indirect purchasers in each state identified herein.

12. Prices of products containing HDD Suspension Assemblies in the United States and each state identified in this Complaint were raised to supra-competitive levels by the Defendants and their co-conspirators, thereby causing and continuing to cause, antitrust injury. Defendants expressly aimed their conspiracy at the United States marketplace and knew that commerce in HDD Suspension Assemblies in the United States and each of the states identified herein would be adversely affected by implementing the conspiracy.

1                                   V. INTERSTATE TRADE AND COMMERCE

2           31.     Throughout the Class Period, each Defendant or one or more of each of their
3 subsidiaries, sold HDD Suspension Assemblies in the United States in a continuous and 4 uninterrupted flow of interstate and international commerce, including through and into this 5 judicial district.

6           32.     During the Class Period, Defendants collectively controlled the vast majority of 7 the market for HDD Suspension Assemblies, both globally and in the United States.

8           33.     Defendants' unlawful activities, as described herein, took place within the flow
9 of interstate commerce as well as throughout the world, and had a direct, substantial and 10 reasonably foreseeable effect upon interstate and international commerce, including the United 11 States markets for HDD Suspension Assemblies.

12                                   VI. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

13   A. HDD and Suspension Assemblies

14           34.     HDDs use magnetic recording heads to read from and write onto rapidly spinning
15 disks. An HDD is a non-volatile memory hardware device that permanently stores and retrieves
16 information. HDDs store digital content such as documents, pictures, music, videos, programs, 17 application preferences, and operating systems. HDDs can be external or internal. They can be 18 found in portable hard drives, desktop or laptop computers, game consoles, set-top boxes/DVRs, 19 network servers, and enterprise storage arrays in data centers. Their usage covers four broad
20 segments: desktop HDDs, mobile (laptop) HDDs, enterprise HDDs, and consumer electronics 21 HDDs. During the Class Period, over four billion units of HDDs were shipped worldwide.

22           35.     An HDD consists of one or more disk platters positioned around a motor-driven
23 spindle hub that rotates the disks. Each disk has data recorded electromagnetically in concentric 24 circles, or tracks, on the disk. A magnetic head, similar to a phonograph arm but in a relatively 25 fixed position, reads or writes the information on the tracks. Two heads, one on each side of a 26 disk, read or write the data as the disk spins.

36. Suspension assemblies hold the recording heads in close proximity to the disks and provide the electrical connection from the recording heads to the hard disk drives' circuitry.<sup>2</sup> Suspension assemblies are a critical component to position the magnetic read/write head above the data on the surface of the spinning disks in the HDD. The distance between the read/write head and the disk platter is referred to as "flying height." The accuracy of this positioning over the tracks on the disk is a large determinant of areal density and subsequently each disk's data capacity. A modern disk drive's flight height is smaller than the circuit size of today's most modern microprocessors. The suspension has a built-in actuator that is controlled to hold the head within a very small tolerance of the centerline of the data track.<sup>3</sup>

37. The suspension assembly consists of three main components that are welded to each other: a base plate, a load beam, and a flexure.

B. Structural Characteristics Of The HDD Suspension Assembly Market

38. The structural characteristics of the HDD Suspension Assembly market are conducive to the type of effective collusive activity alleged in this Complaint. These characteristics include market concentration, ease of information sharing, the consolidation of manufacturers, multiple interrelated business relationships, significant barriers to entry, maturity of the HDD Suspension Assembly market, and homogeneity of products.

a. Market Consolidation and Concentration

39. A concentrated market is more susceptible to effective collusion and other anticompetitive practices. The HDD Suspension Assembly market was highly concentrated during the Class Period.

40. The demand for HDD Suspension Assemblies depends on the demand for HDDs, which in turn is driven by the demand for HDD-based capacity, primarily fueled by the ever-expanding consumer storage consumption and enterprise storage requirements.

1           41. More than 200 companies have manufactured HDDs over time, most of which
2 disappeared through bankruptcy or acquisitions. By 2008, consolidations had concentrated
3 production to just a handful of HDD manufacturers. Consolidation continued during the Class
4 Period. Today, only three HDD manufacturers remain: Western Digital Corporation, Seagate
5 Technology, LLC, and Toshiba Electronics Devices & Storage Corporation. Their market shares
6 are approximately 40%, 37%, and 23% respectively.<sup>4</sup>

7           42. As the HDD market became increasingly concentrated, the Suspension Assembly 8 industry experienced a similar trend of consolidation.

9           43. By 2005, Hutchinson held approximately 55% of the world market share and 10 NHK Spring accounted for approximately 22% of the world market share in the suspension
11 assembly industry.<sup>5</sup> MPT, created through the 2005 merger between the Data Storage Division
12 of Magnecomp International Ltd. and KR Precision Public Company, occupied roughly 20% of 13 the market.<sup>6</sup>

14           44. Further consolidation took place shortly before and during the Class Period. In 15 2007, TDK announced its acquisition of a majority share of Thailand-based MPT and began 16 producing HDD Suspension Assemblies following the acquisition.

17           45. By 2012, Hutchinson held 23.4% of the world market share in the suspension
18 assembly industry, NHK Spring held 39.3%, and MPT held a 33.2% of the market.<sup>7</sup>

19           46. In October 2016, TDK acquired Hutchinson, increasing TDK's market share to 20 55-60%. Following the acquisition, TDK and NHK became the world's only two primary
21 producers of HDD Suspension Assemblies.<sup>8</sup>

47. Collectively, Defendants controlled over 95% of the global market for HDD Suspension Assemblies throughout the Class Period.

b. Interrelated Business Relationships

48. The HDD Suspension Assembly industry has a close-knit nature whereby multiple business relationships between Defendants blurred the lines of competition and provided ample opportunity to collude. These business relationships also created a unity of interest among Defendants so that the conspiracy was easier to implement and enforce than if such interrelationships did not exist.

49. For example, until March of 2015, TDK and NHK Spring—two of the only three major competitors in the suspension assembly market—maintained a joint venture to manufacture suspension assemblies. Specifically, TDK’s wholly owned subsidiary SAE Magnetics operated a joint venture with NHK Spring in the suspension assembly manufacturing company NAT H.K.<sup>9</sup> Throughout the Class Period, SAE Magnetics was also one of Hutchinson’s top three customers.<sup>10</sup> In addition, Defendants also cross-licensed each other’s products, including suspension assemblies.<sup>11</sup>

c. High Barriers to Entry

50. A collusive arrangement that raises product prices above competitive levels would ordinarily, under basic economic principles, attract new entrants seeking to benefit from the supra-competitive pricing. Where, however, there are significant barriers to entry, new entrants are less likely. Thus, barriers to entry help to facilitate the formation and maintenance of a successful cartel.

51. There are substantial barriers to entry in the HDD Suspension Assembly industry. It would require substantial time, resources and industry knowledge to even potentially overcome the barriers to entry. It is also extremely unlikely that a new producer would enter the market in light of the declining demand for HDD products. As Defendant Hutchinson conceded, “we believe that the number of entities that have the technical capability and capacity for producing precision suspension assemblies or components in large volumes will remain small.”<sup>12</sup>

52. Collectively, Defendants also own the majority of patents for HDD Suspension Assemblies. These patents potentially place a significant and costly burden on potential new entrants, which must avoid infringing on the patents when entering the market with a new product.

d. Market Maturity

53. Newer industries are typically characterized by rapid growth, innovation and high profits. The HDD Suspension Assembly market is a mature one, and like many mature industries, is characterized by slim profit margins, creating a motivation to collude.

54. Demand for HDDs and therefore for suspension assemblies experienced a general downward trend during the Class Period. Static or declining demand is another factor which makes the formation of an effective collusive arrangement more likely because it provides a greater incentive to firms to avoid price competition.

55. In addition, increased demand for other types of data storage technology, such as those that utilize solid state storage or flash memory, has limited growth opportunities for disk drive-based data storage. This was one of the factors which led Defendants to engage in this alleged price-fixing scheme in order to slow down declining prices.

1                   e.       Homogeneity of Products

2           56.       HDD Suspension Assemblies are commodity-like products which are
3 interchangeable among products of the same type and across manufacturers. One Defendant's
4 product for a particular application, such as a particular type/size of disk drive (e.g., 2.5" 5 notebook HDD form factor or 3.5" desktop HDD form factor), is substitutable for another's. It is 6 easier to form and sustain a cartel when the product in question is commodity-like because it is 7 easier to agree on prices to charge and to monitor those prices once an agreement is formed.

8       C. Defendants' Unlawful Price-Fixing and Market Allocation Agreement

9           57.       From at least as early as May 2008 and continuing until at least April 2016,
10 Defendants knowingly entered into and engaged in a conspiracy to suppress and eliminate 11 competition by fixing prices for HDD Suspension Assemblies sold in the United States and 12 elsewhere.

13          58.       To carry out their conspiracy, Defendants engaged in a variety of unlawful 14 activities. At times, Defendants engaged in discussions and attended meetings during which they 15 reached agreements to refrain from competing on prices for, fix the prices of, and allocate their 16 respective market shares for, HDD Suspension Assemblies to be sold in the U.S. and globally.

17          59.       Defendants also exchanged HDD Suspension Assemblies pricing information, 18 including anticipated pricing quotes. Defendants used the exchanged pricing information to 19 inform their negotiations with U.S. and foreign customers that purchased HDD Suspension 20 Assemblies and produced HDDs for sale in, or delivery to, the United States and elsewhere.

21       D. Government Investigations

22          60.       In July 2016, the Japanese Fair Trade Commission ("JFTC") raided Defendants
23 TDK and NHK based on suspicion that the two companies and or their subsidiaries had colluded
24 to fix the prices for HDD suspension components. On February 9, 2018, the JFTC issued a cease
25 and desist order to both Defendants, finding that they substantially restrained competition in the 26
27
28

1 HDD Suspension Assemblies market by agreeing to maintain sale prices. The JFTC also
 2 imposed a 1.1 billion yen (approximately $9.9 million) surcharge on the two companies.<sup>13</sup>

3 61. Concurrently with the JFTC investigation, the DOJ opened an investigation into 4 the HDD Suspension Assembly industry for suspicion of potential collusive conduct. On July 5 26, 2016, Defendant Hutchinson received a letter from the DOJ requesting documents relating to 6 the investigation and expressed its intent to fully cooperate with the DOJ's investigation.<sup>14</sup> At 7 the time Hutchinson received the DOJ's letter, TDK's pending acquisition of Hutchinson was 8 under review by the U.S. Federal Trade Commission.<sup>15</sup>

9 62. Subsequently, in April 2018, the Brazilian antitrust authority Administrative 10 Council for Economic Defense ("CADE") launched an investigation into allegations that 11 producers colluded to fix prices in the market for hard disk components between 2003 and 2016.
 12 Companies being investigated include Hutchinson, MPT, NHK Spring, TDK, and SAE
 13 Magnetics. At least 38 individuals are also being investigated.<sup>16</sup>

14 63. According to the CADE, "there is strong evidence that the cartel agreed prices in 15 response to client quotations, divided markets, shared commercially and competition sensitive 16 information mainly in respect of current and proposed prices for suspension assemblies, private 17 bids of clients, allocation of client demand, production capacity of each company and a usage
 18 fee structure with the purpose of stabilizing prices and reducing competition in the sale of 19 suspension assemblies."<sup>17</sup>

64. On July 29, 2019, the DOJ filed a one-count information against NHK Spring charging the company with fixing prices on HDD Suspension Assemblies. According to the information, NHK Spring and its co-conspirators participated in the following activities for the purpose of forming and carrying out the conspiracy:

a. Discussions and meetings during which they reached agreements to refrain from competing on prices for, fix the prices of, and allocate their respective market shares for, HDD Suspension Assemblies sold in the United States and elsewhere;

b. Exchanging HDD Suspension Assemblies pricing information, including anticipated pricing quotes, in the United States and elsewhere;

c. Replying on their agreements not to compete and using the exchanged pricing information to inform their negotiations with U.S. and foreign customers that purchased HDD Suspension Assemblies and produced HDDs for sale in, or delivery to, the United States and elsewhere;

d. Selling HDD Suspension Assemblies in, or for delivery to, the United States and elsewhere at collusive and noncompetitive prices; and

e. Accepting payment for HDD Suspension Assemblies sold in, or for delivery to, the United States and elsewhere at collusive and noncompetitive prices.

65. On the same day, NHK Spring pleaded guilty to the DOJ's charge and agreed to pay $28.5 million in criminal fines and to cooperate in the ongoing investigation.<sup>18</sup>

66. In announcing NHK Spring's guilty plea, the DOJ noted that HDD Suspension Assemblies "are critical to the operation and performance of electronic devices, and their impact on American consumers and businesses is direct and substantial."<sup>19</sup>

VII. CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

67. Plaintiffs bring this action individually and as a class action pursuant to the provisions of Rule 23(a) and (b)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, seeking equitable and injunctive relief on behalf of the following class (the “Nationwide Class”):

All persons and entities who, during the Class Period, indirectly purchased for their own use and not for resale, a product which included one or more HDD Suspension Assemblies that were manufactured or sold by the Defendants, any current or former subsidiary of the Defendants, or any co-conspirator of the Defendants. Specifically excluded from this Class are the Defendants; the officers, directors or employees of any Defendant; any entity in which any Defendant has a controlling interest; and, any affiliate, legal representative, heir or assign of any Defendant. Also excluded are any federal, state or local government entities, any judicial officer presiding over this action and the members of his/her immediate family and judicial staff, and any juror assigned to this action.

68. Plaintiffs also bring this action on behalf of themselves and as a class action pursuant to the provisions of Rule 23(a) and (b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and/or the respective state statute(s), seeking damages pursuant to state antitrust, unfair competition, and consumer protection laws as well as common law unjust enrichment on behalf of the following class (the “Damages Class”):

All persons and entities who, during the Class Period, in the Indirect Purchaser States,<sup>20</sup> purchased for their own use and not for resale a product which included one or more HDD Suspension Assemblies that were manufactured or sold by the Defendants, any current or former subsidiary of the Defendants, or any co-conspirator of the Defendants. Specifically excluded from this Class are the Defendants; the officers, directors or employees of any Defendant; any entity in which any Defendant has a controlling interest; and, any affiliate, legal representative, heir or assign of any Defendant. Also excluded are any federal, state or local government entities, any judicial officer presiding over this action and the members of his/her immediate family and judicial staff, and any juror assigned to this action.

2 69. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class action
3 pursuant to Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure for the following reasons:

4 a. The Classes are ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of 5 interest among members of the Classes;

6 b. Based upon the nature of trade and commerce involved and the number of 7 indirect purchasers of HDD Suspension Assemblies, Plaintiffs believe that the number of Class
8 members is very large, and therefore joinder of all Class members is not practicable;

9 c. Plaintiffs' claims are typical of Class members' claims because Plaintiffs
10 indirectly purchased HDD Suspension Assemblies manufactured by Defendants or their co-
11 conspirators, and therefore Plaintiffs' claims arise from the same common course of conduct
12 giving rise to the claims of Class members and the relief sought is common to the Classes;

13 d. The following common questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to 14 the members of the Classes:

15 i. Whether Defendants formed and operated a combination or 16 conspiracy to fix, raise, maintain, or stabilize the prices of HDD Suspension Assemblies sold in 17 the United States;

18 ii. Whether the combination or conspiracy caused HDD Suspension
19 Assembly prices to be higher than they would have been in the absence of Defendants' conduct;

20 iii. The operative time period of Defendants' combination or 21 conspiracy;

22 iv. Whether Defendants' conduct caused injury to the business or 23 property of Plaintiffs and members of the Classes;

24 v. Whether Plaintiffs and members of the Classes had any reason to 25 know or suspect the conspiracy, or any means to discover the conspiracy;

26 vi. Whether Defendants and their co-conspirators fraudulently
27 concealed the conspiracy's existence from Plaintiffs and members of the Classes;
28

vii. The appropriate injunctive and related equitable relief for the Nationwide Class;

viii. The appropriate measure of the amount of damages suffered by the Damages Class;

ix. Whether Defendants' conduct violates Section 1 of the Sherman Act, 15 U.S.C. ¶ 1, as alleged in the First Claim for Relief;

x. Whether Defendants' conduct violates the Indirect Purchaser States' antitrust laws as alleged in the Second Claim for Relief;

xi. Whether Defendants' conduct violates the Indirect Purchaser States' unfair competition and consumer protection laws as alleged in the Third Claim for Relief; and

xii. Whether Defendants' conduct violates unjust enrichment principles as alleged in the Fourth Claim for Relief.

e. These and other questions of law and fact common to members of the Classes predominate over any questions affecting only individual members, including legal and factual issues relating to liability and damages;

f. After determination of the predominant common issues identified above, if necessary or appropriate, the Classes can be divided into logical and manageable subclasses;

g. Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Classes in that Plaintiffs have no interests that are antagonistic to other members of the Classes and have retained counsel competent and experienced in the prosecution of class actions and antitrust litigation to represent them and the Classes;

h. A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation since individual joinder of all damaged Class members is impractical. The damages suffered by the individual Class members are relatively small, given the expense and burden of individual prosecution of the claims asserted in this litigation. Thus, absent the availability of class action procedures it would not be feasible for Class members to redress the wrongs done to them. Even if the Class members could afford individual litigation, the court system could not. Further, individual litigation presents the potential for inconsistent or contradictory judgments and would greatly magnify the delay and expense to all parties and the court system. Therefore, the class action device presents far fewer case management difficulties and will provide the benefits of unitary adjudication, economy of scale and comprehensive supervision in a single court; and

i. In the absence of a class action, Defendants would be unjustly enriched because they would be able to retain the benefits and fruits of their wrongful conduct.

VIII. PLAINTIFFS AND THE CLASSES SUFFERED ANTITRUST INJURY

70. Defendants' price-fixing conspiracy had the following effects, among others:

a. Price competition has been restrained or eliminated with respect to HDD Suspension Assemblies;

b. The prices of HDD Suspension Assemblies have been fixed, raised, maintained, or stabilized at artificially inflated levels;

c. Indirect purchasers of HDD Suspension Assemblies have been deprived of free and open competition; and

d. Indirect purchasers of HDD Suspension Assemblies paid artificially inflated prices for HDD Suspension Assemblies.

71. During the Class Period, Plaintiffs and members of the Classes paid supra-competitive prices for HDD Suspension Assemblies. HDD manufacturers and other purchasers of HDD Suspension Assemblies passed on inflated prices to Plaintiffs and members of the Classes. Those overcharges have unjustly enriched Defendants.

72. The markets for HDDs and HDD Suspension Assemblies are inextricably linked and intertwined because the market for HDD Suspension Assemblies exists to serve the HDD market. Without the HDDs, the HDD Suspension Assemblies have little to no value because they have no independent utility.

73. HDD Suspension Assemblies are identifiable, discrete physical products that remain essentially unchanged when incorporated into an HDD. As a result, HDD Suspension Assemblies follow a traceable physical chain of distribution from the Defendants to Plaintiffs

1 and members of the Classes, and costs attributable to HDD Suspension Assemblies can be
2 traced through the chain of distribution to Plaintiffs and members of the Classes.

3 74. Just as HDD Suspension Assemblies can be physically traced through the supply
4 chain, so can their prices be traced to show that changes in the prices paid by direct purchasers
5 of HDD Suspension Assemblies affect prices paid by indirect purchasers for HDDs containing 6 HDD Suspension Assemblies.

7 75. While even a monopolist would increase its prices when the cost of its inputs
8 increased, the economic necessity of passing through cost changes increases with the degree of 9 competition a firm faces.

10 76. The economic and legal literature has recognized that unlawful overcharges in a 11 component normally result in higher prices for products containing that price-fixed component.
12 Two antitrust scholars – Professors Robert G. Harris (Professor Emeritus and former Chair of 13 the Business and Public Policy Group at the Haas School of Business at the University of 14 California at Berkeley) and the late Lawrence A. Sullivan (Professor of Law Emeritus at 15 Southwestern School of Law and author of the Handbook of the Law of Antitrust) have 16 observed that “in a multiple-level chain of distribution, passing on monopoly overcharges is not 17 the exception; it is the rule.”<sup>21</sup>

18 77. As Professor Jeffrey K. MacKie-Mason (Arthur W. Burks Professor for 19 Information and Computer Science and Professor of Economics and Public Policy at the 20 University of Michigan), an expert who presented evidence in a number of indirect purchaser 21 cases involving Microsoft Corporation, said (in a passage quoted in the judicial decision in that 22 case granting class certification):

23 As is well known in economic theory and practice, at least some of the 24 overcharge will be passed on by distributors to end consumers. When the 25 distribution markets are highly competitive, as they are here, all or nearly the 26 entire overcharge will be passed on through to ultimate consumers.... Both of Microsoft’s experts also agree upon the economic phenomenon of cost pass

27 <sup>21</sup> Robert G. Harris & Lawrence A. Sullivan, Passing on the Monopoly Overcharge: A 28 Comprehensive Policy Analysis, 128 U. PA. L. REV. 268, 275 (1979).

1 through and how it works in competitive markets. This general phenomenon of 2 cost pass through is well established in antitrust laws and economics as well.

3 78. The purpose of the conspiratorial conduct of Defendants and their co-
4 conspirators was to raise, fix, rig or stabilize the price of HDD Suspension Assemblies and, as a 5 direct and foreseeable result, the price of products containing HDD Suspension Assemblies.
6 Economists have developed techniques to isolate and understand the relationship between one
7 “explanatory” variable and a “dependent” variable in those cases when changes in the dependent
8 variable are explained by changes in a multitude of variables, even when all such variables may 9 be changing simultaneously. That analysis – called regression analysis – is commonly used in 10 the real world and in litigation to determine the impact of a price increase on one cost in a 11 product (or service) that is an assemblage of costs. Thus, it is possible to isolate and identify 12 only the impact of an increase in the price of HDD Suspension Assemblies on prices for 13 products containing HDD Suspension Assemblies even though such products contain a number 14 of other components whose prices may be changing over time. A regression model can explain 15 how variation in the price of HDD Suspension Assemblies affects changes in the price of 16 assembled products, such as computers. In such models, the price of HDD Suspension
17 Assemblies would be treated as an independent or explanatory variable. The model can isolate 18 how changes in the price of HDD Suspension Assemblies impact the price of products
19 containing HDD Suspension Assemblies while controlling for the impact of other price-20 determining factors.

21 79. The precise amount of the overcharge impacting the prices of products containing 22 HDD Suspension Assemblies can be measured and quantified. Commonly used and well-
23 accepted economic models can be used to measure both the extent and the amount of the supra-24 competitive charge passed through the chain of distribution. Thus, the economic harm to 25 Plaintiffs and class members can be quantified.

26 80. By reason of the violations of the antitrust law alleged herein, Plaintiffs and the 27 members of the Classes have sustained injury to their businesses or property, having paid higher
28 prices for HDD Suspension Assemblies than they would have paid in the absence of the Defendants' illegal contract, combination, or conspiracy, and, as a result, have suffered damages in an amount presently undetermined. This is an antitrust injury of the type that the antitrust laws were meant to punish and prevent.

IX. PLAINTIFFS'S CLAIMS ARE TIMELY

A. Defendants Have Engaged In A Continuing Violation

81. Plaintiffs repeat and re-allege the allegations set forth above.

82. Plaintiffs and members of the Classes had no knowledge of the combination or conspiracy alleged herein, or of facts sufficient to place them on inquiry notice of the claims set forth herein, until shortly before the filing of this Complaint.

83. Plaintiffs and members of the Classes are consumers who purchased HDDs containing HDD Suspension Assemblies for their own use and not for resale. Plaintiffs and members of the Classes did not become aware of Defendants' unlawful conduct until the DOJ announced the indictment and guilty plea by defendant NHK Spring. Moreover, Plaintiffs and members of the Classes had no direct contact or interaction with the Defendants and had no means from which they could have discovered that the Defendants were engaged in the combination and conspiracy before the DOJ's announcement of NHK Spring's guilty plea.

84. This Complaint alleges a continuing course of conduct (including conduct within the applicable limitations periods), and Defendants' unlawful conduct has inflicted continuing and accumulating harm within the applicable statutes of limitations.

85. Each time Defendants engaged in an unlawful act complained of here, Defendants undertook an overt act that has inflicted harm on Plaintiffs and other members of the Classes.

86. Because Defendants have engaged in a continuing course of conduct, Plaintiffs' claims are timely.

B. Fraudulent Concealment Tolloed the Statute of Limitations

87. In the alternative, application of the doctrine of fraudulent concealment tolled the statute of limitations on the claims asserted herein by Plaintiffs and the Classes. Plaintiffs and members of the Classes did not discover, and could not discover through the exercise of reasonable diligence, the existence of the conspiracy alleged herein until July 2019.

88. Before that time, Plaintiffs and members of the Classes were unaware of Defendants' unlawful conduct, and did not know before then that they were paying supra-competitive prices for HDD Suspension Assemblies throughout the United States during the Class Period. No information, actual or constructive, was ever made available to Plaintiffs and members of the Classes that indicated to Plaintiffs that they were being injured by Defendants' unlawful conduct.

89. By its very nature, the Defendants' and their co-conspirators' anticompetitive conspiracy was inherently self-concealing. HDD Suspension Assemblies are not exempt from antitrust regulation and, thus, Plaintiffs and members of the Classes reasonably considered the HDD Suspension Assemblies industry to be a competitive industry. Accordingly, a reasonable person under the circumstances would not have been alerted to begin to investigate the legitimacy of Defendants' HDD Suspension Assemblies prices before July 2019.

90. Because the alleged conspiracy was self-concealing and affirmatively concealed by Defendants and their co-conspirators, Plaintiffs and members of the Classes had no knowledge of the alleged conspiracy, or of any facts or information that would have caused a

91. For these reasons, the statute of limitations applicable to Plaintiffs' and the Classes' claims was tolled and did not begin to run until July 2019.

X. VIOLATIONS ALLEGED

A. First Claim for Relief: Violation of Section 1 of the Sherman Act

92. Plaintiffs incorporate and reallege, as though fully set forth herein, each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint.

93. Beginning at a time unknown to Plaintiffs, but at least as early as May 2008 through at least April 2016, the exact dates being unknown to Plaintiffs and exclusively within the knowledge of Defendants, Defendants and their co-conspirators, entered into a continuing agreement, understanding, and conspiracy to unreasonably restrain trade and commerce in the United States, in violation of Section 1 of the Sherman Act, 15 U.S.C. §1.

1           94. In particular, Defendants have combined and conspired to fix, raise, maintain or 2 stabilize the prices of HDD Suspension Assemblies sold in the United States.

3           95. Defendants, by their unlawful conspiracy, artificially raised, inflated and 4 maintained the market prices of HDD Suspension Assemblies as herein alleged.

5           96. The contract, combination or conspiracy consisted of a continuing agreement,
6 understanding and concert of action among Defendants and their co-conspirators, the substantial
7 terms of which were to fix, raise, maintain and stabilize the prices of HDD Suspension
8 Assemblies they sold in the United States and elsewhere.

9           97. Defendants intentionally directed their anticompetitive acts at the United States
10 market for HDD Suspension Assemblies and had a substantial and foreseeable effect on 11 interstate commerce by raising and fixing prices for HDD Suspension Assemblies throughout 12 the United States.

13           98. In formulating and carrying out the alleged agreement, understanding, and 14 conspiracy, the Defendants and their co-conspirators did those things that they combined and 15 conspired to do, including, but not limited to the acts, practices, and course of conduct set forth
16 above, and the following, among others:

17               a. Participated in meetings and conversations to discuss the prices and 18 supply of HDD Suspension Assemblies in the United States and elsewhere;

19               b. Agreed to manipulate prices and limit supply of HDD Suspension
20 Assemblies sold in the United States and elsewhere in a manner that deprived direct and indirect
21 purchasers of HDD Suspension Assemblies of free and open competition;

22               c. Issued price announcements and price quotations in accordance with the 23 agreements reached;

24               d. Sold HDD Suspension Assemblies to customers in the United States and 25 elsewhere at non-competitive prices; and

26               e. Invoiced customers in the United States and elsewhere at the agreed-
27 upon, fixed prices for HDD Suspension Assemblies and transmitting such invoices via U.S. mail 28 and other interstate means of delivery.

1           99.     The combination and conspiracy alleged herein has had the following effects,
2 among others:

3                 a.     Price competition in the sale of HDD Suspension Assemblies has been 4 restrained, suppressed and/or eliminated in the United States;

5                 b.     Prices for HDD Suspension Assemblies sold by Defendants and their co-6 conspirators have been fixed, raised, maintained and stabilized at artificially high, non-7 competitive levels throughout the United States; and

8                 c.     Plaintiffs and members of the Nationwide Class who purchased HDD
9 Suspension Assemblies indirectly from Defendants and their co-conspirators have been deprived 10 the benefits of free and open competition.

11           100.    As a direct result of the unlawful conduct of Defendants and their co-conspirators
12 in furtherance of their continuing contract, combination or conspiracy, Plaintiffs and the 13 members of the Nationwide Class have been injured and will continue to be injured in their 14 business and property by paying more for HDD Suspension Assemblies purchased indirectly
15 from the Defendants and their co-conspirators than they would have paid and will pay in the 16 absence of the combination and conspiracy.

17           101.    These violations are continuing and will continue unless enjoined by this Court.

18           102.    Pursuant to Section 16 of the Clayton Act, 15 U.S.C. § 26, Plaintiffs and the 19 Nationwide Class seek the issuance of an injunction against Defendants, preventing and 20 restraining the violations alleged herein.

21 B.     Second Claim For Relief: Violation of State Antitrust Statutes

22           103.    Plaintiffs incorporate and reallege, as though fully set forth herein, each and 23 every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint.

24           104.    During the Class Period, Defendants and their co-conspirators engaged in a
25 continuing contract, combination or conspiracy with respect to the sale of HDD Suspension
26 Assemblies in unreasonable restraint of trade and commerce and in violation of the various state 27 antitrust and other statutes set forth below.

1           105. The contract, combination, or conspiracy consisted of an agreement among
 2 Defendants and their co-conspirators to fix, raise, inflate, stabilize, and/or maintain at artificially
 3 supra-competitive levels the prices for HDD Suspension Assemblies and to allocate customers
 4 for these products in the United States.

5           106. In formulating and effectuating this conspiracy, Defendants and their 6 coconspirators performed acts in furtherance of the combination and conspiracy, including:

7               a. Participating in meetings and conversations among themselves in the 8 United States and elsewhere during which they agreed to price HDD Suspension Assemblies at 9 certain levels, and otherwise to fix, increase, inflate, maintain, or stabilize effective prices paid
 10 by Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class with respect to HDD Suspension Assemblies
 11 sold in the United States;

12               b. Allocating customers and markets for HDD Suspension Assemblies in the 13 United States in furtherance of their agreements; and participating in meetings and 14 conversations among themselves in the United States and elsewhere to implement, adhere to, 15 and police the unlawful agreements they reached.

16           107. Defendants and their co-conspirators engaged in the actions described above for 17 the purpose of carrying out their unlawful agreements to fix, maintain, increase, or stabilize 18 prices and to allocate customers with respect to HDD Suspension Assemblies.

19           108. Defendants' anticompetitive acts described above were knowing and willful and 20 constitute violations or flagrant violations of the following state antitrust statutes.

21           109. Defendants have entered into unlawful agreements in restraint of trade in 22 violation of the Arizona Uniform State Antitrust Act, Ariz. Rev. Stat. §§44-1401, et seq.

23               a. Defendants' combinations or conspiracies had the following effects: (1)
 24 HDD Suspension Assemblies price competition was restrained, suppressed, and eliminated
 25 throughout Arizona; (2) HDD Suspension Assemblies prices were raised, fixed, maintained, and 26 stabilized at artificially high levels throughout Arizona; (3) Plaintiffs and members of the 27 Damages Class paid supra-competitive, artificially inflated prices for HDD Suspension
 28 Assemblies Products.

1           b.       During the Class Period, Defendants' illegal conduct substantially
2 affected Arizona commerce.

3           c.       As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' unlawful conduct, the 4 Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class have been injured in their business and property
5 and are threatened with further injury.

6           d.       By reason of the foregoing, Defendants have entered into agreements in 7 restraint of trade in violation of Ariz. Rev. Stat. §§44-1401, et seq. Accordingly, Plaintiffs and 8 the members of the Damages Class seek all forms of relief available under Ariz. Rev. Stat. §§ 9 44-1401, et seq.

10       110.   Defendants have entered into unlawful agreements in restraint of trade in 11 violation of the California Cartwright Act, Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 16700, et seq.

12           a.       During the Class Period, Defendants and their co-conspirators entered 13 into and engaged in a continuing unlawful trust in restraint of the trade and commerce described 14 above in violation of Section 16720, California Business and Professions Code. Defendants
15 have acted in violation of Section 16720 to fix, raise, stabilize and maintain prices of HDD
16 Suspension Assemblies at supra-competitive levels.

17           b.       The aforesaid violations of Section 16720, California Business and 18 Professions Code, consisted, without limitation, of a continuing unlawful trust and concert of 19 action among the Defendants and their co-conspirators, the substantial terms of which were to 20 fix, raise, maintain and stabilize the prices of, and to allocate markets for HDD Suspension
21 Assemblies.

22           c.       For the purpose of forming and effectuating the unlawful trust, the 23 Defendants and their co-conspirators have done those things which they combined and 24 conspired to do, including but in no way limited to the acts, practices, and course of conduct set 25 forth above and the following: (1) fixing, raising, stabilizing and/or maintaining the price of 21 §§133.01 et seq.

22           133.   Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class in each of the above states have 23 been injured in their business and property by reason of Defendants' unlawful combination, 24 contract, conspiracy and agreement. Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class have paid 25 more for HDD Suspension Assemblies than they otherwise would have paid in the absence of 26 Defendants' unlawful conduct. This injury is of the type the antitrust laws of the above states 27 were designed to prevent and flows from that which makes Defendants' conduct unlawful.
28

134. In addition, Defendants have profited significantly from the aforesaid conspiracy. Defendants' profits derived from their anticompetitive conduct come at the expense and detriment of Plaintiffs and the members of the Damages Class.

135. Accordingly, Plaintiffs and the members of the Damages Class in each of the above jurisdictions seek damages (including statutory damages where applicable), to be trebled or otherwise increased as permitted by a particular jurisdiction's antitrust law, and costs of suit, including reasonable attorneys' fees, to the extent permitted by the above state laws.

C. Third Claim for Relief: Violation of State Consumer Protection and Unfair Competition Statutes

136. Plaintiffs incorporate and reallege, as though fully set forth herein, each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint.

137. Defendants engaged in unfair competition or unfair, unconscionable, deceptive or fraudulent acts or practices in violation of the state consumer protection and unfair competition statutes listed below.

138. Defendants have knowingly entered into unlawful agreements in restraint of trade in violation of the Arkansas Deceptive Trade Practices Act, Ark. Code Ann. § 4-88-101, et seq.

a. Defendants and their co-conspirators agreed to, and did in fact, act in restraint of trade or commerce in a market which includes Arkansas by affecting, fixing, controlling and/or maintaining, at artificial and/or non-competitive levels, the prices at which HDD Suspension Assemblies were sold, distributed or obtained in Arkansas, and took efforts to conceal their agreements from Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class.

b. The foregoing conduct was unfair, unconscionable, or deceptive within the conduct of commerce within Arkansas.

c. Defendants' conduct misled consumers, withheld materials facts, and resulted in material misrepresentations to Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class.

d. Defendants' conduct was willful.

e. Defendants' unlawful conduct had the following effects: (1) HDD Suspension Assemblies price competition was restrained, suppressed, and eliminated throughout Arkansas; (2) HDD Suspension Assemblies prices were raised, fixed, maintained and stabilized at artificially high levels throughout Arkansas; (3) Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class were deprived of free and open competition; and (4) Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class paid supra-competitive, artificially inflated prices for HDD Suspension Assemblies.

f. During the Class Period, Defendants' illegal conduct substantially affected Arkansas commerce and consumers.

g. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' conduct, Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class have been injured in their business and property and are threatened with further injury.

h. By reason of the foregoing, Defendants have engaged in deceptive and unconscionable trade practices in violation of Arkansas Code § 4-88-107(a) (10), and accordingly, Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class seek all relief available under Ark. Code Ann § 4-88-113.

139. Defendants have engaged in unfair competition or unfair, unconscionable, deceptive or fraudulent acts or practices in violation of the California Unfair Competition Law, Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200, et seq. (the "UCL"):

a. During the Class Period, Defendants committed and continue to commit acts of unfair competition, as defined by the UCL, by engaging in the acts and practices specified above.

b. This claim is instituted pursuant to Sections 17203 and 17204 of the California Business and Professions Code, to obtain restitution from Defendants for acts, as alleged herein, that violated the UCL.

c. The Defendants' conduct as alleged herein violated Section 17200. The acts, omissions, misrepresentations, practices and non-disclosures of Defendants, as alleged herein, constituted a common continuous and continuing course of conduct of unfair competition by means of unfair, unlawful and/or fraudulent business acts or practices within the meaning of

1 the UCL, including, but not limited to, the violations of Section 16720, et seq., of the California
2 Business and Professions Code, set forth above;

3 d. Defendants' acts, omissions, misrepresentations, practices and non-
4 disclosures, as described above, whether or not in violation of Section 16720, et seq. of the 5 California Business and Professions Code, and whether or not concerted or independent acts, are 6 otherwise unfair, unconscionable, unlawful or fraudulent; Defendants' act and practices are 7 unfair to consumers of HDD Suspension Assemblies in the State of California and throughout 8 the United States, within the meaning of the UCL; and

9 e. Defendants' acts and practices are fraudulent or deceptive within the 10 meaning of the UCL.

11 f. Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class are entitled to full 12 restitution and/or disgorgement of all revenues, earnings, profits, compensation, and benefits
13 that may have been obtained by Defendants as a result of such business acts or practices.

14 g. The unlawful and unfair business practices of Defendants, as described 15 above, has caused Plaintiffs and the members of the Damages Class to pay supra-competitive 16 and artificially-inflated prices for HDD Suspension Assemblies. Plaintiffs and members of the 17 Damages Class suffered injury in fact and lost money or property as a result of such unfair 18 competition.

19 h. As alleged in this Complaint, Defendants and their co-conspirators have 20 been unjustly enriched as a result of their wrongful conduct and by Defendants' unfair 21 competition. Plaintiffs and the members of the Damages Class are accordingly entitled to 22 equitable relief including restitution and/or disgorgement of all revenues, earnings, profits, 23 compensation and benefits which may have been obtained by Defendants as a result of such 24 business practices, pursuant to California Business & Professions Code §§ 17203 and 17204.

25 140. Defendants have engaged in unfair competition or unfair, unconscionable, or 26 deceptive acts or practices in violation of the District of Columbia Consumer Protection 27 Procedures Act, D.C. Code § 28-3901, et seq.

1           a.       Plaintiffs and the Damages Class purchased HDD Suspension Assemblies
2 for personal, family, or household purposes.

3           b.       Defendants agreed to, and did in fact, act in restraint of trade or commerce
4 by affecting, fixing, controlling and/or maintaining, at artificial and/or non- competitive levels,
5 the prices at which HDD Suspension Assemblies were sold, distributed or obtained in the 6 District of Columbia.

7           c.       The foregoing conduct constitutes “unlawful trade practices,” within the 8 meaning of D.C. Code § 28-3904. Plaintiffs were not aware of Defendants’ price-fixing 9 conspiracy and were therefore unaware that they were being unfairly and illegally overcharged.
10 There was a gross disparity of bargaining power between the parties with respect to the price
11 charged by Defendants for HDD Suspension Assemblies. Defendants had the sole power to set 12 that price and Plaintiffs had no power to negotiate a lower price. Moreover, Plaintiffs lacked any 13 meaningful choice in purchasing HDD Suspension Assemblies because they were unaware of 14 the unlawful overcharge and there was no alternative source of supply through which Plaintiffs 15 could avoid the overcharges. Defendants’ conduct with regard to sales of HDD Suspension
16 Assemblies, including their illegal conspiracy to secretly fix the price of HDD Suspension
17 Assemblies at supra-competitive levels and overcharge consumers, was substantively 18 unconscionable because it was one-sided and unfairly benefited Defendants at the expense of 19 Plaintiffs and the public. Defendants took grossly unfair advantage of Plaintiffs. The suppression 20 of competition that has resulted from Defendants’ conspiracy has ultimately resulted in 21 unconscionably higher prices for consumers so that there was a gross disparity between the price
22 paid and the value received for HDD Suspension Assemblies.

23           d.       Defendants’ unlawful conduct had the following effects: (1) HDD
24 Suspension Assemblies price competition was restrained, suppressed, and eliminated throughout 25 the District of Columbia; (2) HDD Suspension Assemblies prices were raised, fixed, maintained, 26 and stabilized at artificially high levels throughout the District of Columbia; (3) Plaintiffs and 27 the Damages Class were deprived of free and open competition; and (4) Plaintiffs and the 28

1 Damages Class paid supra-competitive, artificially inflated prices for HDD Suspension
2 Assemblies.

3 e. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' unlawful conduct,
4 Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class have been injured and are threatened with further 5 injury. Defendants have engaged in unfair competition or unfair or deceptive acts or practices in 6 violation of District of Columbia Code § 28-3901, et seq., and, accordingly, Plaintiffs and 7 members of the Damages Class seek all relief available under the statute.

8 141. Defendants have engaged in unfair competition or unfair, unconscionable, or 9 deceptive acts or practices in violation of the Florida Deceptive and Unfair Trade Practices

11 a. The foregoing conduct constitutes "unfair methods of competition," and 12 "unfair or deceptive acts or practices in the conduct of any trade or commerce" within the 13 meaning of Florida Stat. § 501.204.

15 Suspension Assemblies price competition was restrained, suppressed, and eliminated throughout 16 Florida; (2) HDD Suspension Assemblies prices were raised, fixed, maintained and stabilized at 17 artificially high levels throughout Florida; (3) Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class
18 were deprived of free and open competition; and (4) Plaintiffs and members of the Damages
19 Class paid supra-competitive, artificially inflated prices for HDD Suspension Assemblies.

20 c. During the Class Period, Defendants' illegal conduct substantially 21 affected Florida commerce and consumers.

22 d. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' conduct, Plaintiffs and 23 members of the Damages Class have been injured and are threatened with future injury.

24 e. Defendants have engaged in unfair competition or unfair or deceptive acts
25 or practices in violation of Florida Stat. § 501.201 et seq., and accordingly, Plaintiffs and 26 members of the Damages Class seek all relief available under that statute.

1           142. Defendants have engaged in unfair competition or unfair, unconscionable, or
 2 deceptive acts or practices in violation of the Hawaii Unfair and Deceptive Trade Practices

4           a. Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class purchased HDD Suspension
 5 Assemblies for personal, family or household purposes.

 7 Suspension Assemblies price competition was restrained, suppressed, and eliminated throughout
 8 Hawaii; (2) HDD Suspension Assemblies prices were raised, fixed, maintained and stabilized at 9 artificially high levels throughout Hawaii; (3) Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class
 10 were deprived of free and open competition; and (4) Plaintiffs and members of the Damages
 11 Class paid supra-competitive, artificially inflated prices for HDD Suspension Assemblies.

12           c. During the Class Period, Defendants' illegal conduct substantially 13 affected Hawaii commerce and consumers.

14           d. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' conduct, Plaintiffs and 15 members of the Damages Class have been injured and are threatened with future injury.

16           e. Defendants have engaged in unfair competition or unfair or deceptive acts 17 or practices in violation of Hawaii Rev. Stat. § 480-2. Accordingly, Plaintiffs and members of 18 the Damages Class seek all relief available under Hawaii Rev Stat. § 480 et seq.

19           143. Defendants have engaged in unfair competition or unfair, unconscionable, or 20 deceptive acts or practices in violation of the Massachusetts Consumer Protection Act, Mass.
 21 G.L. c. 93A, § 1, et seq.

22           a. Defendants and their co-conspirators were engaged in trade or commerce
 23 as defined by G.L. c. 93A.

24           b. Defendants and their co-conspirators agreed to, and did in fact, act in 25 restraint of trade or commerce in a market which includes Massachusetts by affecting, fixing, 26 controlling and/or maintaining, at artificial and/or non-competitive levels, the prices at which 27 HDD Suspension Assemblies were sold, distributed or obtained in Massachusetts.

c. Defendants and their co-conspirators took efforts to conceal their agreements from Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class.

d. The foregoing conduct constitutes “unfair competition or unfair or deceptive acts or practices” within the meaning of Massachusetts G.L. c. 93A, §2 et seq.

e. During the Class Period, Defendants’ and their co-conspirators’ illegal conduct substantially affected Massachusetts commerce and consumers.

f. Defendants’ unlawful conduct had the following effects: (1) HDD Suspension Assemblies price competition was restrained, suppressed, and eliminated throughout Massachusetts; (2) HDD Suspension Assemblies prices were raised, fixed, maintained and stabilized at artificially high levels throughout Massachusetts; (3) Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class were deprived of free and open competition; and (4) Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class paid supra-competitive, artificially inflated prices for HDD Suspension Assemblies.

h. By reason of the foregoing, Defendants have engaged in unfair competition or unfair or deceptive acts or practices in violation of Massachusetts G.L. c. 93A, §2. Defendants and their co-conspirators’ violations of Chapter 93A were knowing or willful, entitling Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class to multiple damages.

i. Pursuant to Mass. Gen. Laws ch. 93A, §9, certain of the Defendants have or will be served with a demand letter, or, upon information and belief, such service of a demand letter was unnecessary due to the defendant not maintaining a place of business within the Commonwealth of Massachusetts or not keeping assets within the Commonwealth.

144. Defendants have engaged in unfair competition or unfair, unconscionable, or deceptive acts or practices in violation of the Michigan Consumer Protection Act, Mich. Comp. Laws Ann. § 445.901, et seq.

1           a. Defendants engaged in the conduct described herein in connection with
2 the sale of HDD Suspension Assemblies in trade or commerce in a market that includes 3 Michigan.

5 at artificial and non-competitive levels, the prices at which HDD Suspension Assemblies were 6 sold, distributed, or obtained in Michigan, which conduct constituted unfair practices in that it
7 was unlawful under federal and state law, violated public policy, was unethical, oppressive and 8 unscrupulous, and caused substantial injury to Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class.

9           c. Defendants concealed, suppressed, and omitted to disclose material facts
10 to Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class concerning Defendants' unlawful activities and 11 artificially inflated prices for HDD Suspension Assemblies. The concealed, suppressed, and 15 unscrupulous, and caused substantial injury to Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class.

16 c. Defendants concealed, suppressed, and omitted to disclose material facts
17 to Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class concerning Defendants' unlawful activities and

23 were not in accord with the facts.

15          f. During the Class Period, Defendants' illegal conduct substantially 16 affected New Hampshire commerce and consumers.

17          g. Defendants' unlawful conduct had the following effects: (1) HDD
18 Suspension Assemblies price competition was restrained, suppressed, and eliminated throughout 19 New Hampshire; (2) HDD Suspension Assemblies prices were raised, fixed, maintained and 20 stabilized at artificially high levels throughout New Hampshire; (3) Plaintiffs and members of 21 the Damages Class were deprived of free and open competition; and (4) Plaintiffs and members
22 of the Damages Class paid supra-competitive, artificially inflated prices for HDD Suspension
23 Assemblies.

24          h. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' conduct, Plaintiffs and 25 members of the Damages Class have been injured in their business and property and are 26 threatened with further injury.

27          i. By reason of the foregoing, Defendants engaged in unfair competition or 28 unfair or deceptive acts or practices in violation of New Hampshire Rev. Stat. §358-A:2, and

1 accordingly, Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class seek all relief available under §§ 358-
2 A:10 and 358-A:10-a of that statute.

3 151. Defendants have engaged in unfair competition or unfair, unconscionable, or 4 deceptive acts or practices in violation of the New Mexico Unfair Practices Act, N.M. Stat. §
5 57-12-1, et seq.

6 a. Defendants agreed to, and did in fact, act in restraint of trade or commerce
7 by affecting, fixing, controlling and/or maintaining, at artificial and/or non-competitive levels,
8 the prices at which HDD Suspension Assemblies were sold, distributed or obtained in New 9 Mexico.

10 b. Defendants also took efforts to conceal their agreements from the 11 Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class.

12 c. The foregoing conduct constitutes “unfair or deceptive trade practices”
13 and “unconscionable trade practices in the conduct of any trade or commerce” within the 14 meaning of New Mexico Stat. § 57-12-3, in that such conduct resulted in a gross disparity
15 between the value received by Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class and the prices paid
16 by them for HDD Suspension Assemblies as set forth in New Mexico Stat. § 57-12-2E.
17 Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class were not aware of Defendants’ price-fixing
18 conspiracy and were therefore unaware that they were being unfairly and illegally overcharged.
19 There was a gross disparity of bargaining power between the parties with respect to the price
20 charged by Defendants for HDD Suspension Assemblies. Defendants had the sole power to set 21 that price and Plaintiffs and class members had no power to negotiate a lower price. Moreover,
22 Plaintiffs and class members lacked any meaningful choice in purchasing HDD Suspension
23 Assemblies because they were unaware of the unlawful overcharge and there was no alternative 24 source of supply through which they could avoid the overcharges. Defendants’ conduct with 25 regard to sales of HDD Suspension Assemblies, including their illegal conspiracy to secretly fix
26 the price of HDD Suspension Assemblies at supra-competitive levels and overcharge
27 consumers, was substantively unconscionable because it was one-sided and unfairly benefited
28 Defendants at the expense of Plaintiffs and the public. Defendants took grossly unfair advantage

1 of Plaintiffs. The suppression of competition that has resulted from Defendants' conspiracy has
 2 ultimately resulted in unconscionably higher prices for consumers so that there was a gross
 3 disparity between the price paid and the value received for HDD Suspension Assemblies.

4 d. During the Class Period, Defendants' illegal conduct substantially 5 affected New Mexico commerce and consumers.

6 e. Defendants' unlawful conduct had the following effects: (1) HDD
 7 Suspension Assemblies price competition was restrained, suppressed, and eliminated throughout
 8 New Mexico; (2) HDD Suspension Assemblies prices were raised, fixed, maintained and 9 stabilized at artificially high levels throughout New Mexico; (3) Plaintiffs and members of the 10 Damages Class were deprived of free and open competition; and (4) Plaintiffs and members of
 11 the Damages Class paid supra-competitive, artificially inflated prices for HDD Suspension
 12 Assemblies.

13 f. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' conduct, Plaintiffs and 14 members of the Damages Class have been injured and are threatened with further injury.

15 g. Defendants have engaged in unfair competition or unfair or deceptive acts 16 or practices in violation of New Mexico Stat. § 57-12-1 et seq., and accordingly, Plaintiffs and 17 members of the Damages Class seek all relief available under § 57-12-10.

18 152. Defendants have engaged in unfair competition or unfair, unconscionable, or 19 deceptive acts or practices in violation of the New York Deceptive Acts and Practices Law, 20 N.Y. Gen. Bus. Law § 349, et seq.

21 a. Defendants agreed to, and did in fact, act in restraint of trade or commerce
 22 by affecting, fixing, controlling and/or maintaining, at artificial and/or non-competitive levels,
 23 the prices at which HDD Suspension Assemblies were sold, distributed or obtained in New 24 York.

25 b. Defendants also took efforts to conceal its agreements from Plaintiffs and 26 members of the Damages Class.

27 c. Defendants' secret agreements as described herein were not known to 28 Plaintiffs or members of the Damages Class.

1           d.       Defendants made public statements about the price of HDD Suspension
2 Assemblies that Defendants knew would be seen by New York consumers. Such statements
3 either omitted material information that rendered them materially misleading or affirmatively
4 misrepresented the real cause of price increases for HDD Suspension Assemblies. Defendants
5 alone possessed material information that was relevant to consumers, but failed to provide the 6 information.

7           e.       Because of Defendants' unlawful trade practices in the State of New 8 York, there was a broad impact on New York consumer class members, who indirectly
9 purchased HDD Suspension Assemblies; and Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class have 10 been injured because they have paid more for HDD Suspension Assemblies than they would 11 have paid in the absence of Defendants' unlawful trade acts and practices.

12           f.       Because of Defendants' unlawful trade practices in the State of New 13 York, Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class who indirectly purchased HDD Suspension
14 Assemblies were misled to believe that they were paying a fair price for HDD Suspension
15 Assemblies, or that the price increases for HDD Suspension Assemblies were for valid business 16 reasons.

17           g.       Defendants knew that their unlawful trade practices with respect to 18 pricing of HDD Suspension Assemblies would have an impact on New York consumers and not 19 just Defendants' direct customers;

20           h.       Defendants knew that their unlawful trade practices with respect to 21 pricing of HDD Suspension Assemblies would have a broad impact, causing consumer class
22 members who indirectly purchased HDD Suspension Assemblies to be injured by paying more 23 for HDD Suspension Assemblies than they would have paid in the absence of Defendants'
24 unlawful trade acts and practices.

25           i.       During the Class Period, Defendants, directly or indirectly through 26 affiliates that they dominated and controlled, manufactured, sold and/or distributed HDD
27 Suspension Assemblies in New York.

1 j. During the Class Period, Defendants' illegal conduct substantially
2 affected New York commerce and consumers.

3 k. As consumers, Plaintiffs and the members of the Damages Class were 4 targets of the conspiracy.

5 l. The conduct of Defendants as described herein constitutes consumer-
6 oriented deceptive acts or practices within the meaning of N.Y. Gen. Bus. Law § 349, which 7 resulted in consumer injury and broad adverse impact on the public at large, and harmed the 8 public interest of New York State in an honest marketplace in which economic activity is 9 conducted in a competitive manner.

10 m. Defendants' unlawful conduct had the following effects: (1) HDD
11 Suspension Assemblies price competition was restrained, suppressed, and eliminated throughout 12 New York; (2) HDD Suspension Assemblies prices were raised, fixed, maintained, and 13 stabilized at artificially high levels throughout New York; (3) Plaintiffs and members of the 14 Damages Class were deprived of free and open competition; and (4) Plaintiffs and members of
15 the Damages Class paid supra-competitive, artificially inflated prices for HDD Suspension
16 Assemblies.

17 n. Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class seek all relief available 18 pursuant to N.Y. Gen. Bus. Law § 349 (h).

19 153. Defendants have engaged in unfair competition or unfair, unconscionable, or 20 deceptive acts or practices in violation of the North Carolina Unfair Trade and Business 21 Practices Act, N.C. Gen. Stat. § 75-1.1, et seq.

22 a. Defendants agreed to, and did in fact, act in restraint of trade or commerce
23 by affecting, fixing, controlling and/or maintaining, at artificial and/or non-competitive levels,
24 the prices at which HDD Suspension Assemblies were sold, distributed or obtained in North 25 Carolina.

26 b. Defendants also took efforts to conceal their agreements from Plaintiffs 27 and members of the Damages Class.

c. The conduct of Defendants as described herein constitutes consumer-oriented deceptive acts or practices within the meaning of North Carolina Gen. Stat. §75-1.1 et seq., which resulted in consumer injury and broad adverse impact on the public at large, and harmed the public interest of North Carolina consumers in an honest marketplace in which economic activity is conducted in a competitive manner.

d. During the Class Period, Defendants' illegal conduct substantially affected North Carolina commerce and consumers.

e. Defendants' unlawful conduct had the following effects: (1) HDD Suspension Assemblies price competition was restrained, suppressed, and eliminated throughout North Carolina; (2) HDD Suspension Assemblies prices were raised, fixed, maintained and stabilized at artificially high levels throughout North Carolina; (3) Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class were deprived of free and open competition; and (4) Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class paid supra-competitive, artificially inflated prices for HDD Suspension Assemblies.

f. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' conduct, Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class have been injured.

g. During the Class Period, Defendants, directly or indirectly through affiliates that they dominated and controlled, manufactured, sold and/or distributed HDD Suspension Assemblies in North Carolina.

h. Defendants have engaged in unfair competition or unfair or deceptive acts or practices in violation of North Carolina Gen. Stat. § 75-1.1 et seq., and accordingly, Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class seek all relief available under N.C. Gen. Stat. § 75-16.

154. Defendants have engaged in unfair competition or unfair, unconscionable, or deceptive acts or practices in violation of the North Dakota Unfair Trade Practices Law, N.D. Cent. Code § 51-10, et seq.

a. Defendants engaged in the conduct described herein in connection with the sale of HDD Suspension Assemblies in trade or commerce in a market that includes North Dakota.

1           b. Defendants and their co-conspirators agreed to, and did in fact affect, fix,
2 control, and/or maintain, at artificial and non-competitive levels, the prices at which HDD
3 Suspension Assemblies were sold, distributed, or obtained in North Dakota, which conduct
4 constituted a fraudulent or deceptive act or practice and caused substantial injury to Plaintiffs
5 and members of the Damages Class.

6           c. Defendants concealed, suppressed, and omitted to disclose material facts
7 to Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class concerning Defendants' unlawful activities and
8 artificially inflated prices for HDD Suspension Assemblies. The concealed, suppressed, and 9 omitted facts would have been important to Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class as 10 they related to the cost of HDD Suspension Assemblies they purchased.

11           d. Defendants misrepresented the real cause of price increases and/or the 12 absence of price reductions in HDD Suspension Assemblies by making public statements that 13 were not in accord with the facts.

14           e. Defendants' statements and conduct concerning the price of HDD
15 Suspension Assemblies were deceptive as they had the tendency or capacity to mislead Plaintiffs
16 and members of the Damages Class to believe that they were purchasing HDD Suspension 17 Assemblies at prices established by a free and fair market.

18           f. Defendants' unlawful conduct had the following effects: (1) HDD
19 Suspension Assemblies price competition was restrained, suppressed, and eliminated throughout 20 North Dakota; (2) HDD Suspension Assemblies prices were raised, fixed, maintained, and 21 stabilized at artificially high levels throughout North Dakota; (3) Plaintiffs and members of the 22 Damages Class were deprived of free and open competition; and (4) Plaintiffs and members of
23 the Damages Class paid supra-competitive, artificially inflated prices for HDD Suspension
24 Assemblies.

25           g. As a direct and proximate result of the above-described unlawful 26 practices, Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class suffered ascertainable loss of money or 27 property. Accordingly, Plaintiffs and the members of the Damages Class seek all relief available 28 under N.D. Cent. Code § 51-10-06.

1           155. Defendants have engaged in unfair competition or unfair, unconscionable, or
2 deceptive acts or practices in violation of the Oregon Unlawful Trade Practices Act, Or. Rev.

5 sale of HDD Suspension Assemblies in trade or commerce in a market that includes Oregon.

7 affecting, fixing, controlling and/or maintaining, at artificial and/or non-competitive levels, the 8 prices at which HDD Suspension Assemblies were sold, distributed or obtained in Oregon.

9           c. By reason of the conduct alleged herein, Defendants have violated Or. Rev.
10 Stat. § 646.608, et seq.

11           d. Defendants' conduct was conducted with intent to deceive Oregon consumers
12 regarding the nature of Defendants' actions within the stream of Oregon commerce.

13           e. Defendants made public statements that Defendants knew would be seen by 14 Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class; such statements created a likelihood of confusion
15 or misunderstanding with respect to the real reasons that the prices of HDD Suspension
16 Assemblies were rising; and, such statements either omitted material information that rendered
17 the statements materially misleading and confusing, or affirmatively deceived such consumers
18 about the real cause of price increases for HDD Suspension Assemblies.

19           f. Because of Defendants' unlawful and unconscionable trade practices in 20 Oregon, Plaintiffs and members of Damages Class were misled or deceived to believe that they 21 were paying a fair price for HDD Suspension Assemblies or that the price increases for such 22 products were for valid business reasons.

23           g. Defendants knew that their violations with respect to pricing of HDD
24 Suspension Assemblies would have a broad impact, causing persons who indirectly purchased

26 and products containing HDD Suspension Assemblies than they would have paid in the absence
27 of Defendants' unlawful and unconscionable trade acts and practices.

20 and fair.

21 c. Because of Defendants' unlawful and unscrupulous trade practices in 22 Vermont, Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class who indirectly purchased HDD
23 Suspension Assemblies were misled or deceived to believe that they were paying a fair price for 24 HDD Suspension Assemblies or that the price increases for HDD Suspension Assemblies were 25 for valid business reasons.

26 d. Defendants' unlawful conduct had the following effects: (1) HDD
27 Suspension Assembly price competition was restrained, suppressed, and eliminated throughout 28 Vermont; (2) HDD Suspension Assembly prices were raised, fixed, maintained and stabilized at

1 artificially high levels throughout Vermont; (3) Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class
 2 were deprived of free and open competition; and (4) Plaintiffs and members of the Damages
 3 Class paid supra-competitive, artificially inflated prices for HDD Suspension Assemblies.

4 e. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' illegal conduct, Plaintiffs
 5 and the members of the Damages Class suffered an ascertainable loss of money or property as a
 6 result of Defendants' use or employment of unconscionable and deceptive commercial practices
 7 as set forth above. That loss was caused by Defendants' willful and deceptive conduct, as 8 described herein.

9 f. Defendants' misleading conduct and unconscionable activities constitutes 10 unfair competition or unfair or deceptive acts or practices in violation of Vermont Stat. Ann.
 11 Title 9, § 2451 et seq., and accordingly, Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class seek all 12 relief available under that statute.

13 161. Defendants have engaged in unfair competition or unfair, unconscionable, or 14 deceptive acts or practices in violation of the West Virginia Consumer Credit and Protection 15 Act, W. Va. Code § 46A-6-101, et seq.

16 a. Defendants engaged in the conduct described herein in connection with 17 the sale of HDD Suspension Assemblies in trade or commerce in a market that includes West 18 Virginia.

19 b. Defendants and their co-conspirators agreed to, and did in fact affect, fix,
 20 control, and/or maintain, at artificial and non-competitive levels, the prices at which HDD
 21 Suspension Assemblies were sold, distributed, or obtained in West Virginia, which conduct
 22 constituted unfair practices in that it was unlawful under federal and state law, violated public
 23 policy, was unethical, oppressive and unscrupulous, and caused substantial injury to Plaintiffs 24 and members of the Damages Class.

25 c. Defendants concealed, suppressed, and omitted to disclose material facts
 26 to Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class concerning Defendants' unlawful activities and 27 artificially inflated prices for HDD Suspension Assemblies. The concealed, suppressed, and 28

omitted facts would have been important to Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class as they related to the cost of HDD Suspension Assemblies they purchased.

d. Defendants misrepresented the real cause of price increases and/or the absence of price reductions in HDD Suspension Assemblies by making public statements that were not in accord with the facts.

e. Defendants' statements and conduct concerning the price of HDD Suspension Assemblies were deceptive as they had the tendency or capacity to mislead Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class to believe that they were purchasing HDD Suspension Assemblies at prices established by a free and fair market.

f. Defendants' unlawful conduct had the following effects: (1) HDD Suspension Assemblies price competition was restrained, suppressed, and eliminated throughout West Virginia; (2) HDD Suspension Assemblies prices were raised, fixed, maintained, and stabilized at artificially high levels throughout West Virginia; (3) Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class were deprived of free and open competition; and (4) Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class paid supra-competitive, artificially inflated prices for HDD Suspension Assemblies.

g. As a direct and proximate result of the above-described unlawful practices, Plaintiffs and members of the Damages Class suffered ascertainable loss of money or property. Accordingly, Plaintiffs and the members of the Damages Class seek all relief available under W. Va. Code § 46A-6-106.

D. Fourth Claim for Relief: Unjust Enrichment and Disgorgement of Profits

162. Plaintiffs incorporate and reallege, as though fully set forth herein, each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint.

163. Plaintiffs bring this claim under the laws of all states listed in the Second and Third Claims for Relief, supra.

164. Defendants have been and will continue to be unjustly enriched through overpayments by Plaintiffs and the Class members and the resulting unlawful profits on the sales of HDD Suspension Assemblies.

165. Defendants have benefited from their unlawful acts and it would be inequitable for Defendants to be permitted to retain any of the ill-gotten gains resulting from the overpayments made by Plaintiffs of the members of the Damages Class for HDD Suspension Assemblies.

166. Plaintiffs and the members of the Damages Class are entitled to the amount of Defendants' ill-gotten gains resulting from their unlawful, unjust, and inequitable conduct.

167. Plaintiffs and the members of the Damages Class are entitled to the establishment of a constructive trust consisting of all ill-gotten gains from which Plaintiffs and the members of the Damages Class may make claims on a pro rata basis.

168. Pursuit of any remedies against the firms from which Plaintiffs and the members of the Damages Class purchased HDDs containing HDD Suspension Assemblies subject to Defendants' conspiracy would have been futile.

169. Under common law principles of unjust enrichment, Defendants should not be permitted to retain the benefits conferred via overpayments by Plaintiffs and class members.
